

Tom Wallace | Managing Partner

Tom is a lifelong entrepreneur, having founded, built, and successfully exited three different technology companies over three decades. He is an experienced and active panel investor. Over the past 25 years, he has invested in over 100 early-stage technology companies and is a frequent speaker on technology, entrepreneurship, and angel investing. Over the course of his career, he raised over $200M for his various companies - from venture capital and private equity firms. Tom shares his experiences and advice through his Florida Funders podcast Skin In the Game, as well as at the top startup and investing events across Florida.

---

Marc Blumenthal | General Partner

Marc started his first company as a junior in college and never looked back. During the first 25 years of his career, he built and exited three B2B technology companies. After his first exit, he began making investments in early-stage technology companies and coaching those founders. These early investments informed Marc's decision to go full-time into venture capital after his last exit in 2013 and he has been a hands-on, early-stage tech investor full-time ever since. During the last ten years, Marc has backed and worked closely with over a dozen founders and has invested in over 100 early-stage technology companies.

---

Saxon Baum | General Partner

Saxon Baum is a Partner at Florida Funders focused on working with the best investors and entrepreneurs in the country. His career has been focused on entrepreneurship and investing, starting his first business at 12 and selling items on eBay. Saxon graduated from Miami University with a degree in Political Science and a minor in entrepreneurship, starting his first venture-backed business there, a corporate culture software called WeVue. Following six years of running WeVue as the Co-Founder leading the sales and marketing departments, Saxon started his career in venture capital at Florida Funders. While at Florida Funders, Saxon has overseen the growth of assets under management, reaching $150M in 2022. Saxon is also an avid Angel/VC investor focusing on technology in the public and private markets. He has over 20+ private investments in his portfolio and holds a Series 65 FINRA license. He and his wife, Stephanie, have a beautiful baby girl Bari Baum!